MoD FILES REVEAL FRESH UFO ACCOUNTS

The news media have been having a field day with the MoD UFO cases released into the public domain. Some 19 cases dated between 1986 and 1992, have been covered in the released online files.

However, there is a growing suspicion in UFO circles that the release of even more MoD UFO files may have a hidden agenda. We believe that the general public are slowly being conditioned to the fact that there are such things as alien craft 'flying' around in our airspace and there is nothing that we can do about it!

It is becoming apparent that the number of UFO incidents around the country is increasing and this months OVNI carries a selection of some of the more recent startling events.

Whereas in the early 70's, we were chasing reports of moving lights in the sky and wondering exactly what was going on, we are now aware that alien craft, carrying a variety of alien beings have been visiting our planetary home for years. Currently some concern has been expressed over the increase in close encounters and the suspicion that there has also been an increase in the number of alien abductions! Typical of the media treatment to the released MoD files is as follows:-

Aliens from other planets are living among us - or so a small band of passionate converts would have the Government believe. The newly-released Ministry of Defence UFO files contain everything from calm accounts by professional pilots to unhinged rants about the extraterrestrial menace. One of the more eccentric letters sent to the department, dated March 1990, was from a woman claiming to be an alien. She said her spaceship came down in Britain during the Second World War and was recovered by the military. Another letter, dated January 1991, tells of an encounter with two aliens who landed their flying saucer next to a railway track near Warminster Army barracks in Wiltshire. (Source AOL)

We're not alone . . . politician and pilot spot UFO

By Anita Guidera Monday September 29 2008

THE truth is out there -- and if a senior garda, a Fianna Fail politician and a pilot are to be believed, aliens are keeping a close eye on us from above. Dramatic eye-witness testimony was heard at a conference over the weekend which, delegates were told, provided "definitive" proof of recent UFO activity in the skies around north Dublin and Meath. Footage, filmed on a camera phone at 10.35pm on August 3 near Dunboyne was also played and replayed to over 70 delegates who attended the fifth Irish International UFO conference in Carrick-on-Shannon.

The triangular shaped image, with lights at each point, which appeared to send a red laser-type light towards earth, drew gasps of amazement from the 70 or so delegates who attended the world premiere of the footage.

A 'Still' claimed to be from the Irish 'FT' video

And Fianna Fail Town Councillor in Trim, Jimmy Peppard, ran indoors for a camera on August 8 when he spotted a triangular-shaped object measuring "about a mile in diameter" in the sky, where it remained static for about half an hour.

"What we have here is sightings of three objects east, west and south-east of Dublin airport, each five days apart by reliable and trained observers and even since I have arrived here I have received another image from a pilot," Mr Nally told the conference. He later described the laser beam footage as the best footage on the planet and said it would be shown all over the world.

"This is what the sceptics are crying out for. What all this footage has in common is that trained observers, honest people, took it. What better could you get than a senior garda, a politician and a pilot," he said. He added that he would not rule out speculation that increased UFO activity in the north Dublin and Meath areas was linked to the road construction works near Tara. "We cannot rule this out as a possibility.

We are talking about a very ancient sacred place," he said. Ross Hemsworth, who presents a TV show on Sky which investigates the paranormal, said he would reserve judgment until he examined the footage more closely. "There have been a lot of sightings in Ireland in a lot of strange places and the proximity to the digging of the motorway may have opened things up," he said.

Delegates at the two-day event, organised by Betty Meyler, President of the UFO Society of Ireland, otherwise immersed themselves in talk of orbs, luminosity, crop circles, alien abductions and star children.

UFO picture is the 'Best Proof yet'

By VIRGINIA WHEELER

'The Sun' Published: 20 Oct 2008

A "FLYING saucer" is photographed in daylight over a town in a snap hailed as one of the most important ever pieces of evidence of alien life.

The UFO shot across the sky in front of clouds above Dudley in the West Midlands.

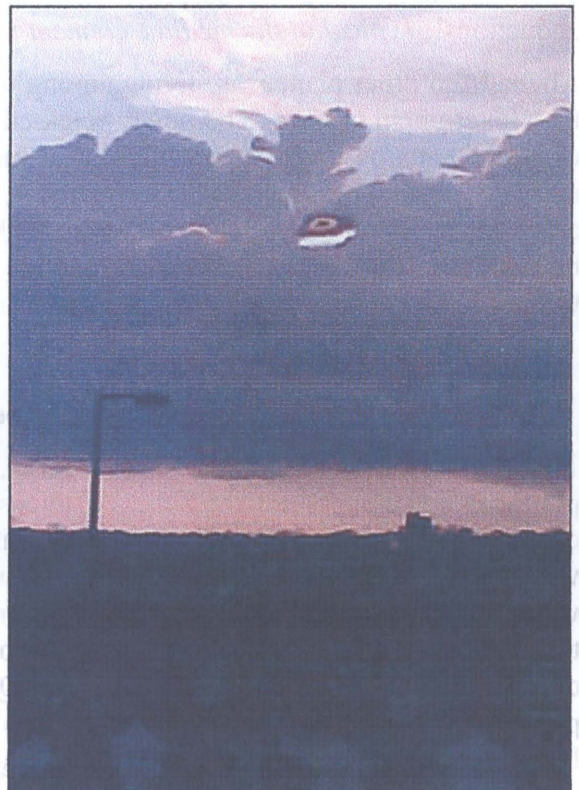

A startled visitor to Dudley Castle captured the amazing image, and sent it to a police detective who collects UFO sightings.

Yesterday DC Gary Heseltine, 48, said: "It's a very intriguing photograph that was taken purely by chance

"If it's genuine then it could be one of the most convincing pieces of evidence about aliens from the UK ever."

The photo was taken by a 57-year-old nanny on a day out, last April.

DC Heseltine, of Wakefield, West Yorks, has now handed it over for study to a former US navy physicist who specialises in photo analysis.

UFOMAG Conference Report from the 'Daily Mirror' Monday 27.10.2008

(Colin Saunders PRA makes a big hit!)

Secret Ministry of Defence documents were released last week which revealed a US pilot was ordered to fire on a UFO in 1957. Old news. Everyone here has known about that story for years – and are mildly amused by it. (see OVNI page 6)

Aircraft designer and businessman Colin Saunders, 50, reminds me of Richard Dreyfuss in Spielberg's movie, Close Encounters of the Third Kind. Just as the actor crafted a huge alien mountain out of mashed potato, Colin made a triangular model of a strange craft he saw one night in March 1999.

After a meal near his Hinckley home, Colin says he was driving back with his wife, daughter and mother-in-law when they all saw four lights in the sky. Parking their car beneath them, the night sky rippled and a triangular craft materialised – or “decloaked” as Colin puts it – above them.

“It was so close to the ground and it tipped at 90 degrees, pointing up at the sky,” he says, using his model to re-enact the strange events of that night. “If it had tipped downwards it would have crushed the car.”

Colin has worked with Swedish aircraft maker Saab and helped design the Airbus. This is a man who knows his aircraft – and he says the experience has changed him profoundly. “I’m a more spiritual person now,” he says. “I care more for the planet and other people. I’m less materialistic.”

Like any two-day festival, the event organised by UFO Data Magazine, had two big headliners.

On Saturday it was retired RAF Squadron Leader Alan Turner. He told a rapt audience about his experience manning his radar terminal at RAF Sopley, Hampshire, in 1971. (See OVNI page 6)

Over the course of 25 minutes the air traffic controller tracked a succession of objects that skimmed the Welsh/ English border, then shot upwards to 60,000 feet in the blink of an eye.

He explained that the RAF's Lightning plane was the only craft capable of such a feat at the time. Yet every plane guarding Britain and Europe from the threat of Russian nuclear bombers would have had to have been used – and that is unlikely.

Triangle UFO Witness Fears Alien Abduction

By Gemma Gadd : Louth Leader Newspaper 16 October 2008

(Ed: Louth is approx. 12 miles to the West of the East Coast resort of Mablethorpe—the scene of previous FT activity)
Thursday 11am - A UFO witness from Brinkhill, Louth says he is worried about being abducted by aliens after repeatedly seeing triangle-shaped aircraft near his home.

Eric Goring, 61, came into the Leader office this week to recount his bizarre experiences after reading our articles on the Louth 'orange lights' UFOs published last month. He said: "I have been watching these space ships for six weeks now, and saw eight together on September 25 and more again last night. It was really spooky and I can say for sure that any explanation these are just Chinese lanterns is ridiculous." Recounting his latest sighting, he said: "I was outside on my scooter at around 5am and watched them until about 6am. One came from the front and then others came in from different directions. "They seemed to be lighting the clouds up as they went along and their lights were bright white. There was no noise and they moved slowly, hovering and then shooting off at speed."

Mr Goring described the objects as triangular in shape and lined with lights. He drew these diagrams to illustrate what he saw, explaining: "I estimate they were around 50 feet across in size and sometimes they shone a large searchlight from the bottom."

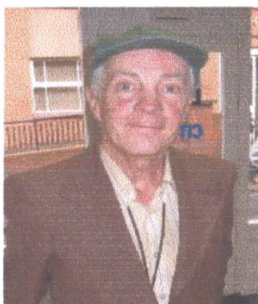

He added: "I am seeing these ships so regularly now and I think they are here to study the planet." Eric revealed he had a close encounter with one of the objects last month: "I saw one come from the direction of the fields and over a tree. I almost walked right under it as it was just hovering in the air about 200 feet above me. "It wasn't shining its search light down but I didn't want to go too near it as I was worried about radiation." He added: "And I am worried they might beam me up."

Describing the objects as appearing like balls of white light when viewed at a distance in the sky, Eric said: "They sometimes look red too and give off a bright flash – like a camera flash." When asked where he thought the UFOs came from, Mr Goring was adamant they were not terrestrial aircraft: "They were definitely from space and of alien origin. There were no vapour trails and I could see the edges of the crafts and they were triangular." Mr Goring said the only other time he had seen a UFO was in 1999 from Alford Road in Brinkhill: "It was a silver ball that appeared to glitter gold; and it moved silently at a speed of around 75mph. But it was nothing in comparison to what I have been seeing recently."

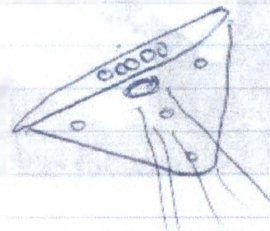

Eric now regularly scans the skies in the early hours of the morning to keep a watch out for the 'space craft': "I am worried about them and feel I have got to go out and keep looking for them now. Somebody has to keep a look out and report these things as we don't know what they are here for."

"They were the greatest thing I had ever seen, and if you ever saw them, you would never forget them."

Mr Goring concluded by saying he wasn't sure why aliens would choose to visit the Louth area: "I have seen them shining their searchlight down over the local fields so maybe they are fascinated with them in some way." He added: "Brinkhill is a red hot spot for these ships at the moment."

White Lights At Night Give Couple A Fright

by TIM FLETCHER (Burton Mail 10-10-2008)

A COUPLE have been left baffled after seeing mysterious lights in the night skies over Burton-on-Trent and South Derbyshire.

Mac McCree, 59 and partner Lesley Gaunt, 55, first experienced the eerie phenomenon while at their home in Woodland Road, Stanton, on Monday (6th October) shortly before 10pm.

"My missus had gone out for a cigarette while I was watching the telly," said Mr McCree. "She said 'Mac, come and have a look at this' and at first I thought it was someone shining my torch.

"We saw two lights - it was a dullish white circular glow - one of them was sort of hovering over Winshill or Newton Solney and the other one appeared to be over Bretby or Newhall - they were scorching across the sky.

"I thought at first it had to be something going on at Donington, but the speed of them was unbelievable. We've watched planes going into East Midlands Airport at 200mph but that's nothing compared to the speeds these we're going at.

"Me and my missus thought we were seeing things - I thought 'I don't believe this is happening'".

The phenomenon re-appeared on Tuesday night at around the same time, prompting a call to Burton police, who told him the lights originated from the town's Statutes Fair. However, Mr McCree is sceptical. "I don't see how the lights could have come from the Statutes - for one thing they were at the other side of town from there," he said.

"Also, if it had been some kind of laser or searchlight you would have seen the beams going up and there was none.

"People might think I'm making it up but I'm not that kind of person. I went and asked my next door neighbour to come and look at it to make sure we weren't dreaming."

Neither Staffordshire Police nor Derbyshire Police had any record of further reports of the strange lights, while the Met Office was equally in the dark when contacted by The Mail.

Strange Orbs Seen Over Buxton Area

(E-mail message to the PRA)

Last night at 9pm on 12 October 2008 I was in my office when two orange orbs appeared from a south east direction. I went to the back of the house and clearly saw three orange orbs swooping around one another at first I thought there was going to be a crash.

Two of the orbs suddenly sped away to the north and disappeared over horizon towards Chapel-en-le Frith and disappeared in less than a minute.

Within minutes another pair of orange orbs appeared followed at about 1 minute intervals by a further two pairs of the orange orbs all about 1 minute apart. I reported the sighting to the police and this morning to Air Traffic Control. The orange orbs were seen by my wife and this morning two nearby neighbours also said they had seen the same orbs only they counted eight orange orbs

Do you have any other reports or sighting in this area?

Best regards Mike Moore

U.S. Pilot Was Ordered To Shoot Down UFO !

Mon Oct 20, 3:58 am LONDON (Reuters) – Two U.S. fighter planes were scrambled and ordered to shoot down an unidentified flying object (UFO) over the English countryside during the Cold War. One pilot said he was seconds away from firing 24 rockets at the object, which moved erratically and gave a radar reading like "a flying aircraft carrier." The pilot, Milton Torres, now 77 and living in Miami, said it spent periods motionless in the sky before reaching estimated speeds of more than 7,600 mph After the alert, a shadowy figure told Torres he must never talk about the incident

His story was among dozens of UFO sightings in defence ministry files released at the National Archives in London.

In a written account, Torres described how he scrambled his F-86 D Sabre jet in calm weather from the Royal Air Force base at Manston, Kent in May 1957.

"I was only a lieutenant and very much aware of the gravity of the situation. I felt very much like a one-legged man in an ass-kicking contest," he said. "The order came to fire a salvo of rockets at the UFO. The authentication was valid and I selected 24 rockets." "I had a lock-on that had the proportions of a flying aircraft carrier," he added. "The larger the airplane, the easier the lock-on. This blip almost locked itself." At the last moment, the object disappeared from the radar screen and the high-speed chase was called off.

He returned to base and was debriefed the next day by an unnamed man who "looked like a well-dressed IBM salesman. He threatened me with a national security breach if I breathed a word about it to anyone," he said and he duly kept silent for more than 30 years.

The documents contain no official explanation for the incident, which came at a time of heightened tension between the West and the Soviet Union. Planes were on constant stand-by at British bases for a possible Soviet attack. The files blame other UFO sightings on weather balloons, clouds or normal aircraft. Torres said he had been waiting 50 years for an explanation.

"I shall never forget it," he told the Times. "On that night I was ordered to open fire even before I had taken off. That had never happened before." (The files are online at: www.nationalarchives/ufos)

RAF Radar Chief Reveals Incredible 1971 UFO Fleet Sighting

September 13th, 2008 - 1:16 pm ICT by ANI - London, September 13 (ANI): A sexagenarian RAF expert claims that the Ministry of Defence in Britain asked him to keep quiet after he tracked a whole fleet of spaceships on military radar in 1971. Sixty Wing Commander Alan Turner, 64, who was a chief operator of the RAF's radar system for 29 years, said that all his colleagues were surprised to see 35 super-fast vessels appear on their screens.

He said that the craft were equally spaced and shot from 3,000ft to 60,000ft at almost 300mph.

He revealed that every UFO would suddenly vanish from radar after a few seconds, and be replaced by an identical vessel moments later. According to him, six military radars and operators at Heathrow spotted the UFOs east of Salisbury Plain, and filed reports on the unexplained phenomenon in 1971. The RAF chief even drew a map charting their flight in between key sites like RAF Lyneham, Wilts, and the aircraft navigation transmitter at Brookmans Park, Herts.

However, staff members were instructed to never speak about the incident again, when the Ministry of Defence visited the RAF three days later. UFOs are a fact I tracked them on military radar units. What I saw defied all logic and was, quite frankly, extraordinary. It wasn't just me, British tabloid The Sun quoted Turner, who retired from the RAF in 1995, as saying. More than 30 pairs of eyes of RAF staff and radar operators at Heathrow Airport witnessed the same thing. Its arrogant to believe that were the only ones in this universe, he added.

Turner, who was a radar supervisor at the now disused RAF Sopley base, Dorset, in 1971, further said: I instantly knew this wasn't a convoy of military planes. The only craft with that rate of climb were supersonic lightning aircraft but they wouldn't have been able to hold such a perfect formation. They also make a lot of noise. No one heard a thing on the night in question. Turner was awarded MBE in 1984.

.A Fateful Night In 1991. Its A Never Ending Story...

By Mr EB, Wigan, UK.

I was driving around the Wigan area testing walkie talkies for range. My wife was at home with one of the radios and I with the other. Reception was good. As I drove down a country lane in Red Rock, near Wigan, I noticed a bank of fog. Reception on the radio was still OK and I continued to speak to my wife on the radio. Then suddenly as I drove into the fog, I was bombarded by a high pitched whistle, the whistle got louder and louder and was becoming painful, so painful that I started to become disorientated. In an attempt to stop the noise, I made sure that the car radio was off I also thought I had switched off the walkie-talkie.

However, It got worse, I then realised that my left ear was bleeding, I also had the distinct impression that there was "someone" sat in the passenger seat, I couldn't understand what was happening. Suddenly, I found myself driving out of the fog, with my left ear hurting and the left side of my face burning. I then heard my wife shouting my name over the walkie-talkie. She said, "Come in ...where are you, why are you not answering" I replied, "not answering, I've never stopped talking to you" She then said, "I've been shouting my head off for the last half-hour and you've not replied, I was worried sick. What's going on?" I replied, " I don't really know, but I feel sick and my left ear and face are "killing me" I'm coming home!" She said, "You better! you've no right getting me worried like that!" I responded that I would get home as quickly as possible. Driving back was difficult as I felt unwell and the car, (That was always very reliable) was acting up. On arriving home, the wife was waiting for me. When she saw me she was shocked at my dishevelled and bloodied appearance. Once in the house, she screamed at me "where the hell have you been!" that my ear was bleeding and that the left side of my face was sunburned, she said, "you look awful, what's happened, I responded with "I've no idea, but I feel ill and want to vomit. I rushed into the toilet and spewed up masses of a clear liquid, like water but thicker. I then felt VERY tired and went to bed.

My dreams were troubled. I then awoke with a jolt, I didn't know where I was for a moment and panicked at the darkness of the room, REAL terror swept over me and I was overwhelmed by a terrible claustrophobic feeling. I almost ripped the door of its hinges trying to get out of the bedroom. To this day, my fear of confined spaces and fear of being trapped is beyond belief! It's disgusting and disabling. Wherever I go, I have to make a conscious effort to check and ensure that I cannot be trapped.

Discussing things later with the wife, it was determined that I was "missing" for exactly 30 minutes. When I say "missing", at that time. I was totally unaware of a time loss. Also, I did not have a clue as to what had happened to me. I felt so ill though that I had to visit my GP. She could not determine what had happened to me and sent me for tests at our local hospital. It seems that my blood count was dangerously low, as for the "sunburn" they just asked me if I had fallen asleep under a sun lamp! One of the consultants asked me if I worked near strong magnetic fields, such as a power station. I told him that the nearest I had been to a power station was a 13amp-wall socket! Since the experience, my health got very bad and is still poor. But I have learned to live with the strange and sometimes seemingly life-threatening symptoms.

I obviously became intrigued as to what happened to me and more so because of the weird and sometimes scary images that I started to have. Images of skinned animals on hooks. Creatures with big black eyes were telling me that the images are a warning for mankind. In the "images" the creature pointed at the pitiful (still alive!) animals on hooks on a "sort of" conveyor belt over a street with children playing and mothers smiling and happily gardening, oblivious to the plight of the animals that were going for processing. The belt led down into a beautiful valley to a factory, belching steam. The creature said; "Man, this is you, this is what you are, until you learn to treat other creatures as you would treat yourselves, there is no hope for you" After that dream, I went vegetarian for a couple of years. Later though, I went back (rightly or wrongly) to eating meat.... I got more and more BAD "dreams" and decided to see a psychologist to try and ascertain what had happened to me. The psychologist suggested hypnosis, I reluctantly agreed and "IT" all came out!

After coming out of hypnosis the psychologist said that he had taped the conversation, that he couldn't believe what he was hearing and wanted nothing further to do with the matter. He said however, that he would go out of the room and he left;

I switched on the tape machine and could not believe my ears! It was I, my voice, telling the psychologist that I had been abducted by aliens! It seems that as I hit the bank of fog, my car and myself were picked up by, (yes! lifted lock stock and barrel into a UFO!) I was placed on a "table" stripped and was attended to by several small grey creatures and one human looking man.

They did various tests on me I noticed that "the room" was big and quite full of other people. There were a lot of "greys" messing about with other people. Next to me laid on a similar table was a young naked girl. She was terrified. Her face was etched with terror and she kept asking me if she was dreaming. I told that I did not think so. She calmed down, a little, and told me that she came from the Parbold area of Wigan, and wanted to know where she was, I couldn't tell her as I didn't know myself and besides I was very worried as to what was happening also. I got agitated as a man was being led past me by the "greys" toward a metallic spiral staircase toward a semi-circular door, quite high up to my right at the top of the "room".

I began to lose my temper as the situation appeared to me to be BAD for the man. Images of Nazi atrocities flashed through my mind, I really had the impression that "they" were going to do something really horrible to him, the feeling was disgusting. I thrashed about and shouted, then, the "human" approached me. He was quite normal in appearance, in his fifties, very powerful in appearance, he appeared to me to be "the boss", he didn't speak to the greys, but he did seem to control them. As he approached me I heard him say, not to worry, everything's ok, the man you see is going back to where we picked him up. All that we're doing is preparing him.

Unfortunately, the device we use to get you out of your bed or wherever and into our ship is quite stressful to humans. You are not very strong and it can be dangerous, so we have to prepare your bodies for the trip. Don't worry, as you will be going next! I actually "asked" him a question; I "asked" him, "How do you pick us up?" He replied, "Well, the best way I can explain it is that we shift you, shift you in time... well, more like inter dimensionally.

We can't put you back at exactly the same time as we picked you up but we can pick you up from anywhere and any place we want to" I asked, "What do you call the machine?" Surprisingly, (I thought) he actually replied.. "Its called a dimensional shift device" The "conversation" again seemed to take place in my head. I heard all this but his lips never moved! When I say I heard him it was more like "pictures" in my head, but it seemed as if it was in my ears. I believed him and calmed down. Since, that day, other odd things have happened and I am convinced that I have been abducted several times over the past few years. I have awoken with bruises, long spindly finger marks on my arms and torso. My pyjamas on inside out, etc, etc.

Editor: As the result of a request to 'EB' to print his story in the OVNI, he added a final comment:

By all means print the report in your Journal. I hope it proves helpful to others who may have had similar experiences in showing them that they're not alone.

After the abduction my life changed beyond recognition. I even ended up with a much higher IQ and was offered a place in Mensa! My psychic abilities also became more acute and I even found I had the power to heal.

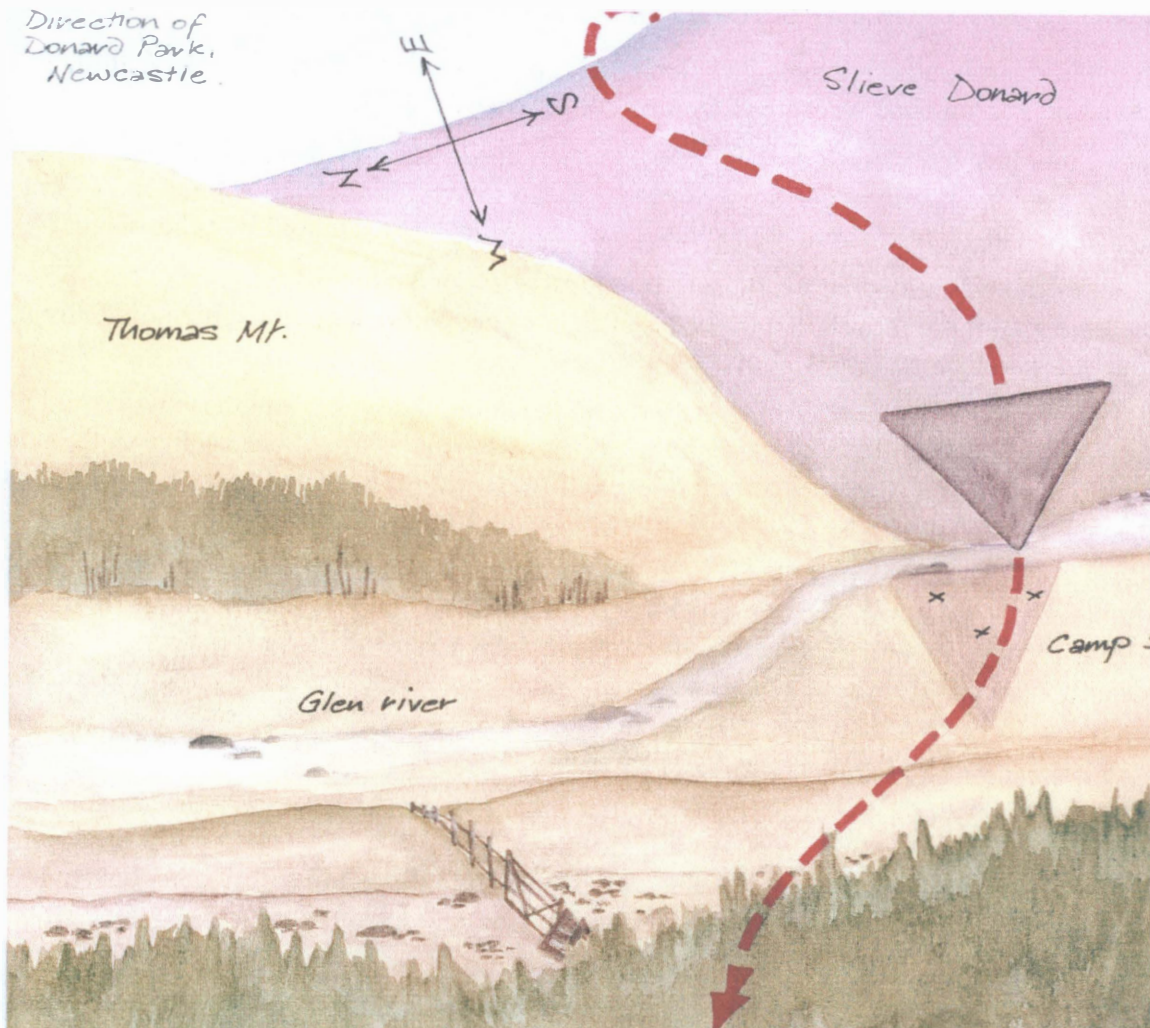

The downside was the collapse in my health. It became so chronic I could no longer work. However, not working gave me more time to pursue UFO investigation. I've had many life threatening illness's over the past decade and been rushed to hospital on numerous occasions. each time the doctors were astounded at my capacity to get better ; in some cases I was given only a few minutes to live.

Recovery from some of the illness's was nothing short of "miraculous"

End.

THE MOURNE MOUNTAINS (IRELAND) 'FT' SIGHTING: AUGUST 1982

(From the PRA Files)

(From the PRA Files)

The FT track -Glen River Valley. (Courtesy: Northern Ireland UFO Research Project)

Witness report: Whilst camping at the above location in August 1982, a large triangular object flew directly over the campsite, moving slowly and silently across the valley at an estimated height of 30ft.

The object approached from an Easterly direction moving through a ravine between Slieve Donard and Thomas Mountain. It was first seen approx 1/2 mile away and approached, passing directly overhead.

It then banked slowly to the Port (left) side, when cruising over the forest due West of the campsite before disappearing from view some 20 seconds later.

The 'Flying Triangle' was described as being 'slate grey' in colour and showed a large dim-yellowish-white light in the centre.

1963 Australian UFO Landing !

UFO Sighting 1963 SEPTEMBER late - Biloela (QLD) Time just before midnight. Source: Generated by newspaper article. Witness: Mrs. Margie x Number of witnesses present: 1 Sighting Duration: 5 minutes or more. Occupation: caretaker of farm.

Report taken by Diane AUFORN (With Thanks to Bill Foster USA for forwarding this article)

We were living in a farm house just outside Biloela in QLd my husband worked on the Callide power station we lived in a farmhouse we were caretakers for the owner.

We didn't have any water or electricity. This night I was in the kitchen by myself it was late september I don't remember the date. I went to get some water I washed my feet in the warm water and I went outside on the veranda, we had a kitchen veranda then and two bedrooms it was an old farm house.

When I went outside I seen this big huge doom thing it was about 3 storeys high it was like metallic material it looked like it, it was a bright orange. It looked like a big cruse ship a mother-ship sorta thing. It had like shutter windows around it.

It was sitting on a big like saucer like thing underneath the doom the saucer had these white and blue lights underneath it. It was siting on the ground when I first saw it, it was in our backyard, the house was in one yard the chicken coup was just behind that and through a door through the coup was another yard it was behind the chicken coup, it was around 300 yards away from the house.

The object was sitting on the ground then it went up it hovered. When I first went out with the dish water I was going to throw it, it gave me the biggest shock. I had a feeling there was something around but I didn't know what. It was moonless night usually we have 3 dogs there around for the cows we normally have dingos around but there was no sound the dingos didn't make a sound and neither did the chickens everything seemed to be asleep nothing moved.

Diane: So the object didn't stir the dogs or chickens.

No they all disappeared, not a sound love. I tossed the water away and I stood there and watched it. It went up and hovered just above the ' ground.

The object left a round ring on the grass I mean crop of sorghum. I went in to wake my husband up and then I lost sight of it. When I couldn't wake him up I went back to look at it but it was gone with no noise or anything.... just gone.

The next day I told the farmer about it so my husband and the farmer went up to measure the ring, apparently there was a big burnt patch it was 300 meters wide on the bottom.

The object was huge, I wasn't petrified I was just stunned, I was very sorry I went in to wake my husband because when I came back it was gone. No one else would have seen it because we were isolated out there.

Veteran Researcher Margaret Fry reveals the facts about the BERWYN MOUNTAIN INCIDENT (23 January 1974)

THE BERWYN MOUNTAIN INCIDENT ON 23.1.1974

I have investigated the so called Berwyn Mountain crash of the 23rd January 1974 since 1979. The Welsh Federation/Fellowship of UFO Investigators, the WFIU have been spasmodically helping me since 1993, and in the past 5 years I have had the invaluable help and research of Scott Felton one of our Investigators on this Berwyn Mountain incident. Unlike people who write about this from other English counties, we meet witnesses to this at Llandrillo, Corwen etc. yearly. So let me dispel some myths that have grown around this Welsh Roswell.

Firstly, numbers of people in North Wales saw structured craft that 23rd January 1974 evening. So not all were nimbus lights that can conveniently be explained away as 'fairy lights.' The nurse and her two teenage daughters from exactly opposite the mountain range on the B 4391, saw a definite egg shaped pinky orange Object sitting on a rocky ridge of the Berwyn mountain range. Incidentally, as so many websites claim this nurse later mysteriously disappeared, she most definitely did not. I communicated with her a number of times over the years. She just got utterly fed up with people calling at her house without any prior arrangement, expecting to take up her time convenient or not. She simply sold up and moved house.

If it was the British Geological Survey who took up residence for a week in a Bala Hotel, why did they behave in a secretive mysterious fashion, according to a Mrs Prichard who worked in that Hotel? The public went up the Cader Bronwen range on the 24th January morning to search for supposed UFO debris. Nerris Lloyd sister of the farmer Huw Lloyd, found an interesting unusual piece, which they endeavoured to get analysed without much success. So much for the research of British Geological Team!

As to poachers camping on a rocky mountain ridge which is pitch black at night, as there are no lights from houses or roads, and advertising themselves for miles around with torches, to invite the attention of the Police is a ludicrous theory, as is illogically suggested by skeptics, chiefly a man called Andy Roberts.. Aside from this, all that side of the mountain is solid rocks, with about 6 inches of top soil, it slopes steeply down to a gorge and is full of pot holes which fill with black ice in winter, snow fell that night of the 23rd January 1974. So it would be utterly foolhardy for local poachers who know the lay of the land or anyone to attempt to climb there at night let alone camp which would have been near impossible. Please note I am writing about Cader Berwyn Mountain range, not Bronwen which is the back drop to Llandrillo village, and which all these skeptical people made their badly investigated judgements on.

At first it seemed to me, that common sense would indicate that the lights seen zig-zagging up the mountain by the Evans family were lanterns belonging to the Military and Police who came to the rescue of what at first was assumed a plane crash. Indeed, many of the witnesses whom I interviewed over the years said they had gone in their cars up a narrow mountain dirt track road leading to the base of the mountain, and the Military and Police were there, doing just that. They turned people away, so that they would not hinder any rescue operations. All perfectly reasonable, common sense explanations with no mystery about them. Except that to date we have not found this elusive track.

Whilst I cannot discount what so many Witnesses have told me over the years, that they saw this egg shaped orange/pink Object through the trees sitting in the distance on a bare mountain ridge, we have discovered there are many mountain tracks, some with gates at the base to higher mountains, to date we have not found one that answers to their description.

I should point out here that Huw Lloyd, the Police accompanying him, and later the Geological Survey, Andy Roberts and Jenny Randles all went up the dirt track road past Huw Lloyd's farm leading to the Bronwen mountains range that is a back drop to Llandrillo village. This is 4.1/2 miles from the place the Evans family saw the UFO which landed, and not visible from there due to numerous mountain peaks in between. So therefore it is quite useless Andy Roberts suggesting what the Evans family saw was poachers lanterns. Although the Geological Survey Team took notes from Mrs Pat Evans, how thorough were they that neither they or these skeptics bothered to go to the B 4391 to view the angle at which she and her family saw this UFO sitting on the lower ridge of Cefn Coch? How thorough was Jenny Randles in saying the core of the earthquake was on Bronwen mountain range? She obviously did not consult the Seismic Dept of Edinburgh University, which I did many years ago and passed their papers on to Andy Roberts, at his request, which he conveniently forgets to mention..

Bearing in mind that the Evans family and local farmers families saw this craft in pitch dark, it being winter time, we by interviewing them and going with them to the exact spot from where they sighted the UFO, have been able to accurately pinpoint the exact position of the UFO that landed. The Evans family were on the B 4391, standing on the boarder of Merionethshire and Gwynedd and these mountains are only visible for an 1/8 of a mile. There after being obscured by high cliffs as one winds downwards to a valley from this high narrow mountain road

In recent years after interviewing local people and seeing the actual terrain of Cefyn Coch and Cader Berwyn from the West side, I have realised that due to the steep dangerous terrain, both these mountains are 2,000 ft, Military and Police could not have gone up to the Object in pitch dark. It is possible that they were aliens doing some repairs on their own craft. Alternately, we come back to the rumours that have circulated since 1974. Did a UFO crash on Cader Berwyn's West slope and further, why would this landed UFO been there if not close to the scene of the other which is supposed to have crash landed? did this other craft that landed come to the rescue of it? To date we have no evidence at all for this persistent rumour, but we do have many witnesses to a UFO coming down SLOWLY, NOT CRASHING on the Cader Berwyn range that night, the exact details of which you can read in my next book 'Link to the Stars' in print hopefully in the coming months.

If you watched the series of offerings by Fire Fly Productions on Channel 5 recently, they churned out the usual ill conceived biased theories through the usual offices of skeptics such as Andy Roberts and Dr. Dave Clarke. They use these men no doubt because they express the views the Government and MOD want the public to have. Let common sense prevail, and that is what we of the WFIU have applied in all our research. Yes, we do go back to sources, what a conceited man is Andy Roberts who thinks he is the only one who does so. And why does he say he never consults Ufologists? They are the people who unstintingly give their time and money to researching a particular incident. If they are good at the job they research with an open mind, which is more than this arrogant Mr Andy Roberts ever does. Every year new evidence and witnesses come to light which we have to thoroughly research and investigate. Scott Felton and I have done just that. Sometimes what we thought before proves wrong, we say so, but as long as people like Steve Gerrard and Omar Fowler have a forum for British UFO researchers, we will go on keeping you up to date

WHAT IS GOING ON IN OUR SKIES? (Internet Report)

These weird clouds appeared over Show Low, AZ. (Arizona USA) 9-22-08 (22nd September 08) about 10 am. Wind was blowing quite strongly in the upper atmosphere. They would appear as oval shaped blobs coming from the west, start getting holes and then eventually just turn into wisp like spider webs. They were colored, as if a rainbow was in the cloud. There were also regular clouds, but the strange clouds only lasted maybe 15-20 minutes. --Corrine

LATEST MYSTERY ON MARS!

2008 October 6

Layers of Red Cliffs on Mars

Credit: HiRISE, MRO, LPL \(U. Arizona\), NASA

Explanation: How did these layers of red cliffs form on Mars? No one is sure. The northern ice cap on Mars is nearly divided into two by a huge division named Chasma Boreale. No similar formation occurs on Earth. Pictured above, several dusty layers leading into this deep chasm are visible. Cliff faces, mostly facing left but still partly visible from above, appear dramatically red. The light areas are likely water ice. The above image spans about one kilometer near the north of Mars, and the elevation drop from right to left is over a kilometer. One hypothesis relates the formation of Chasma Boreale to underlying volcanic activity.

TALE ENDERS

NASA's Mars Rover Opportunity is setting its sights on a crater more than 20 times larger than its home for the past two years. To reach the crater the rover team calls Endeavour, Opportunity would need to drive approximately 7 miles to the southeast, matching the total distance it has travelled since landing on Mars in early 2004. <http://spaceflightnow.com/news/n0809/22opportunity/>

Scientific research along with ancient text documents suggests the Mayan Calendar ending on December 21st 2012 may very well be connected to solar activity. Mitch Battros' research shows that charged particles emitted by the Sun in the way of solar flares, CME's and coronal holes are the cause of extreme earth changes such as earthquakes, volcanoes, hurricanes, and tornadoes. His research also indicates the very same magnetic flux which effects the Earth, will also affect humans. In fact, Battros will demonstrate how the magnetic field which surrounds the Earth is similar to the magnetic field which surrounds every living thing.

"I believe it will be the magnetic influence produced by the Sun which will usher in what is described by our ancient ancestors as "the transition" bringing us to a new state-of-being". (Mitch Battros)

March 10, 1991; Citrus Heights, California A 22-year-old man in Citrus Heights, California observed a light gray triangular object flying at 2000-3000 feet altitude at 10:30 p.m. The object was estimated to be 200 feet in diameter, had rounded corners, and flew silently at a speed of between 100 and 150 mph. It flew on a straight course, going directly overhead and finally passed beyond some trees. He could see the lightless object due to its reflection of lights from the ground. What happened on October 14? (When a huge UFO had been predicted to appear?)

(From Billy Booth's internet site) It appears that the Federation of Light's prediction that a large UFO will appear in Alabama on October 14, did not come true. Many of you expressed your opinion on this controversial subject, and cast your vote on our poll.

FRENCH UFO REVELATIONS COMING SHORTLY!

Our friend and colleague Paul Ponsot, the dedicated French UFO researcher is expected to visit Derby towards the end of November and will be speaking at the Allenton RBL (date to be advised) on the results of his research into UFO abductions and contactee events in France. NOT TO BE MISSED!

'Shropshire Star' Sept.2. UFO experts have described Shropshire as a hive of activity and believe that something 'big' is going on in the county. Farmers in the area reported finding a number of mutilated animals after seeing strange lights. Over the past 3 months Star readers have spotted strange lights in the skies. The latest report comes from Neil Gregory, he spotted an orange glowing light above Haughmond Abbey on Saturday at about 10.30pm. "It was an orange glow and it was pulsating".
